Bisbee, September 29, 1896.

COPPERING.

Con Sullivan returned from a short trip for his health tonight.

Miss Hurato left us for a short visit to friends at Fairbanks this morning.

Sheriff Leatherwood was noticed among the incoming passengers this morning.

Frank Armstrong and wife returned from their trip east today. They are both in the best of health and had a most pleasant journey.

Otto Van Kanel returned from Benson today, accompanied by his wife and child. This was a pleasant surprise to Otto's friends many of whom had any idea that he was married.

Francis Nelson, Bisbee's leading tailor who was recognized by all as a hot number, left yesterday morning for Denver. He has secured a contract for putting in an electric plant to light the town of Globe and expects to make a small sized stake out of the same.

Mr. Nelson built up quite a good business in the tailoring line during his short stay with us, as his work was first class and thoroughly up to date.
This portion of his business will be carried on in his absence by Mr. Fred Warburton of California who is an experienced tailor and cutter and who comes to us highly recommended. He served in some of the best houses in California as well as in a number of 1st class London shops and is well fitted to fill any wants in his line.

Mr. Nelson thanks his numerous patrons for their past favors and recommends Mr. Warburton to them as one well deserving of a share of their future patronage.

The Democratic ratification meeting of which our Democratic friends expected so much came off last evening, but hardly came up to their expectations. Quite a crowd was in attendance but owing to some mismanagement they were kept waiting on the speakers for about three-quarters of an hour and this seemed to throw a wet blanket over the meeting. The band tried to revive the spirits of the people but were somewhat out of practice. The crowd became somewhat enthusiased when Frank Cox started to address them but he speedily relapsed again into silence. Mr. Cox made a very fair talk on the issues in general and then in glowing terms tried to tell the people what Mark Smith had done and would do for them in congress. His remarks on the whole were well received but the lack of enthusiasm in the audience was quite noticeable. He was followed by Mark Smith himself, who gave one of his usually good speeches, and in well selected remarks committed himself to the good will of the people and asked for their support.
His points were well taken, and a number of Buckey O'Neil's followers are beginning to believe that their votes will do more good if deposited for Mark instead of Buckey.
